WMEA TO SPONSOR RUMMAGE SALE
MARCH 9 IN MISSOULA

MISSOULA--

The Western Montana Epilepsy Association (WMEA) will sponsor a rummage sale March 9 in Missoula to raise funds to become affiliated with the Epilepsy Foundation of America (EFA). The rummage sale will be from 9 a.m.-3 p.m. at 3307 S. 7th St. W.

Michael M. McCarthy, a University of Montana student who is WMEA president, said that the EFA requires local epilepsy organizations to have a minimum of $250 in the bank for expenses in order to become affiliated nationally.

McCarthy said local residents who have items to contribute to the rummage sale may bring them to 3307 S. 7th St. W. or phone McCarthy, 549-6649, who will make arrangements to have someone collect the items. Cotton goods, old lamps and small electrical appliances are among the things needed for the sale.
